

A1338

Calcutta

15th February 1886

Dear Sir /

Strathendrick

— vs —

Wolseley -

Be good enough to release the above vessel from arrest as we have received satisfactory - Security in lieu of Bail the bearer will pay the release fee the vessel desires to leave tomorrow morning

Yours faithfully
Sanderson

The Marshal
Calcutta

permitted

Antiochus

the Antiochus

and Alexander was sent to Antiochus and when Alexander came back he sent the king a gift in reward which he accepted and gave him a general command over his troops

(Alexander)
General

Antiochus